

Biogen Golden Ticket Award in Neuroscience

Overview

The Biogen Golden Ticket award in Neuroscience is a competitive process seeking to identify rising startups in the field of neuroscience, neurodegeneration and areas related to Biogen research. The process begins with completion of a short application form which provides nonconfidential information about the applying company and research area. Following submission, the Biogen selection committee will identify a limited number of applications to move on to the final rounds for review. The winning applicant will receive a “Golden Ticket” for priority space consideration and a $50K credit for space at LabCentral 700 in Cambridge, Mass. to be used within 13 months of issue

Completed applications must be e-mailed to Paul.Andrews@biogen.com by November 15th, 2024 at 11:59 PM Eastern Daylight Time.
